It will be quite a while before any consideration regarding another Mausoleum will be built. This last one was completed approximately 12 years ago and we still have the six crypts available from that initial offering when it was being built. If interested in more information concerning Mausoleum spaces, contact the parish office.

The St. Ann's Parish and K.J.Z.T. #37 want to extend sincere gratitude to all who helped with the fundraiser this past weekend. It was an overwhelming success. All of the needed funds to purchase the pavilion heaters as well as automate the bronze bell have been raised due to the wonderful response in donations, purchases and volunteer help that was shared this past Sunday! Quasimodo can get some rest, and Esmeralda can keep warm in the Pavilion those first Sundays of the winter months when everyone gathers for a bite to eat and some fellowship...the process to address the bell will begin and hopefully be completed by the annual feast day!

Lackluster Lenten Success?

Now that we are past the halfway mark as of last (Laetare) Sunday...it is time to begin planning just what special liturgical opportunities we might avail ourselves of in the last days of our Lenten journey. There can be no more impressive way to enter into the culmination of what Lent prepares us for than the special and solemn liturgies of the Sacred Triduum--Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter. These sacred days are observed with rich symbolism and prayerful silence. Even if in your own assessment Lent has been personally somewhat lackluster...one could, as a family (these days are a true feast for the senses of young ones especially) choose to mark each of these days through participating in the high holy days. Give it some thought...and don't let these Sacred days simply pass by!
