That Man Is You

That Man Is You (TMIY) has started its third "semester" this past week. It was one of the most thought-provoking sessions had thus far, dealing with real challenges Catholic men of all ages face. One doesn't have to attend prior "semesters," just take that first step and show up. Every Wednesday morning TMIY meets in the Family Center at St. Joe from 6:00 A.M. to 7:30 A.M.

For Your Information

In the coming weeks the doors of the church are going to be removed in phases to have the exteriors stripped, sealed and refinished. The front entryway doors in particular took a lot of wind and rain during the storm and the finish took a beating. The side ramp entrance near the priest sacristy will remain useable, but there may be one weekend when the double front doors will be removed--the two single entry doors will remain. Basically it'll be a slight inconvenience that will allow the doors to be protected and returned for years of service ahead.

We will have our monthly 24 hours of Eucharistic Adoration beginning this Thursday after the 6:30 A.M. Mass in the Meeting Room (door combination 2-4-3).

All Souls Day

Envelopes for All Souls Day can be found in the Church entrance. These intentions will be remembered for a novena of Masses and will remain on the Altar for the month of November.

Scheduling Mass Intentions

Beginning November 1st the 2018 calendar will be available for scheduling Mass intentions. Remember that the great majority of people want weekend Masses and there are a limited number of weekends. So be aware that not all intentions can be scheduled for weekends--some must be for weekdays. Scheduling can be done at the St. Joseph Pastoral Center during office hours for Sweet Home, Koerth, Hochheim and Yoakum. One should not simply drop a note to the Pastoral Center and assume a particular date is open--important that you speak with the staff to guarantee dates are open before making an assumption.

A few things to do....

If one is looking for a way to be more involved, or apply themselves a bit more in their Catholic faith...consider a few opinions readily available:

--CCD/Faith Formation is always in need of helpers and teachers in the valued role of assisting our young folks with learning their faith

--RCIA is meeting each week—and it's not simply for those interested in joining the Church. It can serve as an excellent refresher course, as well as offer the opportunity to share with those interested in possibly joining the Church.

--That Man Is You is off and running for the menfolk of the parish and community giving them a great way to start their day and focus in the mission as disciples

--ALPHA (English and Spanish) is soon to get going again weekly...many who attended last spring's sessions found it helpful and enjoyable in a communal setting

--A Spanish language Scripture study is beginning that will be hosed in homes

--the Encuentro V group is busy in their planning for the diocesan meeting to help create missionary disciples amongst the Hispanic Communities

--there is the upcoming Women's ACTS retreat sponsored through the parish

--the Divine Mercy study and reflection group continues through November each week

--Altar Society, Catholic Daughters, Knights of Columbus...many men and women who join together in numerous ways to support the Church and Community

There are plenty of opportunities to avail oneself if one desires to. For more information or contacts for any of the above just all the parish office.
