Scheduling Mass Intentions

Beginning November 1st the 2017 calendar will be available for scheduling Mass intentions. Remember that the great majority of people want weekend Masses and there are a limited number of weekends. So be aware that not all intentions can be scheduled for weekends--some must be for weekdays. Scheduling can be done at the St. Joseph Pastoral Center during office hours for Sweet Home, Koerth, Hochheim and Yoakum. One should not simply drop a note to the Pastoral Center and assume a particular date is open--important that you speak with the staff to guarantee dates are open before making an assumption.

Something Different...and Educational/Informative

One of the fruits of discussion that our That Man Is You program concluded is that there are times when you want to see/read/watch/learn something new, positive, insightful, relevant and meaningful and this sort of media is not always readily available. Rather than immersing oneself in meaningless watching reruns, or rehashing all sorts of unseemly things that are so prevalent in our modern technologically driven culture...there are options! The parish is experimenting with a trial subscription to Formed.org. It offers a variety of programs, presentations, stories and reflective offerings to indulge the spiritually beneficial aspect of our lives. As the parish is taking on this trial subscription, all one has to do is go to the site, register your email and input the parish code of WJKPMW, and you have access. Give it a try and let us know if you think it is worthwhile! After three months we will evaluate if this is helpful/useful or not.

TMIY

Over seventy men have risked deeper involvement in their faith relationship and tried the That Man Is You offering we have embarked upon for the men of the parishes. It is never too late! Try it out...put your toe in the water...see if it is for you! Each Wednesday morning the men gather at 6:00 A.M.--breakfast, camaraderie, consider visiting loved one's resting places with family members during November to earn grace and personal faith enrichment as a family.

Mausoleum

There have been several inquiries concerning the last mausoleum built and available spaces. At present there are only three "doubles," that is, one opening for two entombments available. All are located on the top row of the structure. If interested or desiring of more information, simply contact the Pastoral Center.

Why "bless graves" for All Souls?

It's understood that a Catholic Cemetery is consecrated ground. Yet each year around All Souls there is a tradition to visit the cemetery and "bless graves." In reality it is not to re-bless what is already blessed. Rather it is the ritual of Visiting a Cemetery and offering prayers for those at rest therein, and seeking consolation for those mourning the loss of loved ones. Our faith tradition is rich in its practice of maintaining a dignified and sacred place to commit our loved ones' mortal remains. And as November is the month of the "holy souls," it serves as an ideal time to formally gather and join in prayer for those who have gone before us and with whom we long to one day be reunited in the resurrection. Regarding "blessing," certainly new tombstones/memorials can be blessed. The tradition of cemetery visitation is part of our rich tradition--even if you cannot make the formal gathering in our local cemeteries,
