Happy Thanksgiving!

This week as our nation takes its annual “pause” to render thanks, let us remind ourselves that every celebration of the Eucharist is itself a Sacrifice of Thanksgiving--rendering thanks through the power of the Spirit to the Father for the gift of the Son. We are so blessed in our nation with our freedoms, our military and first responders who so bravely serve us, our families, our parish and communities. It's so vital in our faith that we offer thanks to be appreciative of the many ways the Good Lord continues to provide for us and shower us with his sanctifying grace!

Sleeping St. Joseph

When the Holy Father was elected and moved into the papal apartments, one item he brought with him was a statue of St. Joseph sleeping. He described the devotion he has to St. Joseph and his own “tradition” of placing little notes with petitions/intentions underneath the little statue, thereby putting the need and concern in St. Joseph’s hands. The Pastoral Center has a couple of these unique “sleeping St. Joseph” statues if you would like to enhance your own devotion and tradition regarding our patron.

for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus.”*

This is the highest and most sublime prayer, says pope

Kathleen N. Hattrup

Francis gives 4 necessary predispositions for achieving an encounter with the Lord who is alive and with us.

Taking up week two of his new series of catecheses on the Mass, Pope Francis today underlined what he called a “simple aspect” of his theme: the Mass as prayer.

It is prayer par excellence, he said, “the highest, the most sublime and, at the same time, the most ‘concrete.’”

The pope then went on to consider what prayer actually is. It is a dialogue, he explained, a personal relationship with the Lord, for which we were all created.

The Holy Father then went on to discuss four elements that are necessary for prayer:

1. Silence, because every dialogue requires silence.

“And from God’s mysterious silence gushes His Word, which echoes in our hearts. Jesus Himself teaches us how it is really possible to be with the Father and He demonstrates it with His prayer.”

2. Knowing how to call God our Father

“We must learn to say Father, that is, to put ourselves in His presence with filial confidence.

3. Trust and confidence, as a child

“Children know how to trust, they know someone will take care of them, of what they will eat, of what they will wear and so on ...”

4. Also as a child, allowing oneself to be surprised by God

A child “marvels even at small things, because everything is new to him. To enter in the Kingdom of Heaven it is necessary to let oneself be surprised ... Do we let ourselves be surprised by God who is always a God of surprises? Because an encounter with the Lord is always an encounter with someone living, it’s not an encounter of [something in a] museum. And we’re going to Mass, not to a museum. We go to a living encounter with the Lord.”

Thanksgiving Day Prayer

We gather today to give thanks to God for his gifts to this land and its people, for God has been generous to us. As we ask God’s blessing upon the food we will share with our families, may we be mindful of those in need. Amen.
