Thanks!

Grateful thanks to our Catholic Daughters for their generous gift to our Faith Formation / CCD program. Your dedication to our parish and its religious education ministry is appreciated!

Wild and Crazy Gals of St. Joe

It should come as no surprise that the St. Joe Dough Rollers are known for their wild and crazy antics each year. They do not plan to disappoint us this year in the slightest. In reviewing the traditional routine of preparation they are adding new procedures to insure that our #1 auction item, the Pyramid of Poppyseed and Cheese Rolls, will be not only outstanding...but sensational. As is the norm, they need your help. Donations are being accepted at the parish office. Each donation simply adds to their excitement and feisty success! It's not just about "looking pretty," they're in it to win!

Picnic Raffle Tickets

Raffle tickets and money may be dropped off at the parish office or placed in an envelope marked "raffle" and dropped in the collection basket. Extras are available at the parish office and in the Church entrances.

Auction Items Needed

The auction at the picnic is in need of some unique and special items that will draw bidder's interest and generosity. Keep an eye out for those types of goodies that will attract everyone's interest and desire to bid...and bid high!

St. Ann Pave the Driveway Update

Things have fallen into place. Work will begin in approximately 6 weeks (around the start of August). It will take 2 weeks or so to complete depending on weather obviously. This will be a cement entryway and drive that leads around the Church as well as a sidewalk to the Pavilion and sacristy. This should provide a truly lasting solution to this driveway project. Now we must patiently wait!
